

2026 IEEE Information Theory Workshop

Call For Papers
Tempe, Arizona, USA.
November 10–13, 2026

We are pleased to announce that the 2026 IEEE Information Theory Workshop (IEEE-ITW'26) will be held in the beautiful desert city of Tempe, Arizona, USA between November 10–13, 2026. ITW'26 is planned as an in-person conference with authors expected to travel and participate in the event. IEEE-ITW'26 solicits and welcomes original contributions from a broad range of topics related to information and coding theory as well as its connections with other areas, including but not limited to the following:

- Blockchain
- Communications theory
- Data science
- Frontiers of coding theory and practice
- Information theory and statistics, biology and signal processing
- Information-theoretic security
- Machine learning theory and practice
- Modern coding theory
- Network information theory
- Network coding and distributed storage
- Quantum information and coding

ITW 2026 will be putting a specific focus on the areas of Information theory in Machine Learning, Quantum information and coding, and Coding for 6G.

Organizing Committee

General Co-Chairs

Oliver Kosut (Arizona State University)
Lalitha Sankar (Arizona State University)
Bane Vasić (University of Arizona)

Technical Program Co-Chairs

Tara Javidi (UC San Diego)
Valentin Savin (Quobly, France)
Ravi Tandon (University of Arizona)
Yao Xie (Georgia Institute of Technology)

Finance Co-Chairs

Shaofeng Zou (Arizona State University)
Narayanan Rengaswamy (University of Arizona)

Tutorials Co-Chairs

Victoria Kostina (Caltech)
Anand Sarwate (Rutgers University)

Publications Chair

Cynthia Rush (Columbia University)

Local Arrangements Chair

Gautam Dasarathy (Arizona State University)

Publicity Chair

Taejoon Kim (Arizona State University)

Digital Presence Chair

Onur Günlü (Linköping University)

Important Dates

- Paper Submission Deadline: May 3, 2026
- Acceptance Notification: July 17, 2026
- Camera-Ready Due: August 17, 2026
- Workshop Dates: November 10–13, 2026

Submissions: <https://edas.info/> Contact: <mailto:ieee.itw.2026@gmail.com>

ITW 2026

Tempe, Arizona, USA
November 10–13, 2026

